Inteligencia Social, La By Karl Albrecht

En un mundo en el que cada vez se valoran más las relaciones interpersonales, la noción de inteligencia ya no puede quedar reducida a una mera capacitación intelectual. Karl Albrecht define la inteligencia social como la disposición de llevarse bien con los demás y ganarse su cooperación. Una combinación de sensibilidad hacia las necesidades e intereses de los otros -nuestro radar social-, y una actitud de generosidad, consideración y habilidad para interactuar con cualquier persona en todos los ámbitos. Inteligencia social ofrece un modelo completo y accesible para describir, determinar y desarrollar de forma individual esta inteligencia. Conceptos básicos, ejemplos esclarecedores, anécdotas, estrategias y métodos de autoevaluación, forman parte de una obra destinada a ayudarnos a aprender a navegar con soltura y eficacia en sociedad.
