The Goblins of Labyrinth By Brian Froud

Brian Froud and Terry Jones illustrations of the goblins of the movie Labyrinth. Includes the names and story of each goblin. Details Author: Brian Froud & Terry Jones Publisher: Henry Holt & Company Year: 1986 A huge heavy book, full of conceptual designs of about 100 different goblins (some from the movie, the others in hiding in the Labyrinth) by Brian Froud, all faithful reproductions of his ink on parchment original drawings, with Monty style narrative courtesy of Terry Jones. There's also a generous amount of full colour prints of the Wiseman, Sir Didymus, Toby and a brown-haired girl who was the predecessor of our Sarah. Shame about there being no pics of Jareth, as he himself was originally conceptualised as a muppet (cue thoughts of Sarah dancing with a Big Bird equivalent). If you love Brian Froud's Fantasy art and love Labyrinth, you will need to have this book.
