Editorial Review

Review

In an era of globalization and intense competition for collections, financial contributions, and new audiences, museums need to adapt to the new trends by promoting innovations and developing strategic alliances worldwide in order to create emotionally rewarding experiences. This book provides professionals in the art field invaluable advice and guidance to define positioning of museums in the increasingly complex cultural, social, economical and technological context we live in. (Juan Ignacio Vidarte, Director General, Guggenheim Museum, Bilbao; Chief Officer for Global Strategies, Solomon R. Guggenheim Foundation)
