Head over High Heels (Smitten) By Kate Forster

Lyssa is caught between her family's rules, and an opportunity to help them

When Lyssa is scouted by a modeling agency, she's more surprised than anyone. She's a gangly girl from a migrant family, with out of control hair, living in the wrong part of town. She's not even interested in a modeling career, she wants to study medicine. But then she learns how much she could earn from a single photoshoot—enough to give her struggling family the help they need. Lyssa's parents don't like her talking to boys, let alone posing provocatively for a photographer. And while her best friend Emily is a champion liar, Lyssa's still not sure she'll get away with it. She's always played it safe. But then she meets Dan at the modeling agency, and Dan is all kinds of amazing. Maybe amazing enough to convince Lyssa that she should play it dangerous for once.
