LENNONOLOGY | Strange Days Indeed - A Scrapbook Of Madness By Chip Madinger, Scott Raile

Fifteen years in the making, the first volume of the LENNONOLOGY series, Strange Days Indeed-A Scrapbook Of Madness, is a day-by-day account of John Lennon and Yoko Ono's artistic and personal partnership from 1968-1980 that will transport the reader back in time to accompany John and Yoko as their future unfolds. A painstakingly researched collection, Strange Days Indeed-A Scrapbook Of Madness has been written in the form of a daily journal, and weaves oral history together with narrative and contemporary graphic material to provide the most accurate and unbiased portrait of the Lennons' lives and art ever produced. An embarrassment of riches was discovered while researching LENNONOLOGY. Subsequent volumes will mirror the format and augment the fine detail found in this first installment. Reams of documentation and countless reels of film, music and spoken word have been scoured to guarantee a wealth of new information and insights for even the most seasoned fan.
