China: Trade, Foreign Direct Investment, and Development Strategies (Chandos Asian Studies Series) By Yanqing Jiang

Trade and foreign direct investment (FDI) play a crucial role in shaping China's development strategies. The development of China's economy creates strong pressures for continuous restructuring. China therefore explores how trade and FDI affect China's development strategies regarding the process and pattern of restructuring. The book aims to provide the reader with findings that shed new light on the related issues and problems. The first chapter introduces the topics, and subsequent chapters enter into theoretical discussion and empirical analysis of trade, FDI, and development strategies, followed by a concluding final chapter.

- Based on a rigorous theoretical framework
- Applies various statistical and econometric methods
- Uses rich and comprehensive data
